Hurrah for the fourth of July!

There was a rain fall of two and sixty-two hundredth inches in Kula the last week.

American business houses in Wailuku are decked in fourth of July colors of red, white and blue.

DON'T FORGET TO ATTEND THE RACES ON JULY 4th if you want to see some good sports. The crowds will be there.

Of the twenty-seven Normal School graduates only two are from Maui. Miss Hannah Cummings and Miss Eleanor Wilcox.

Mrs. W. J. Stone has just received a lot of Princess dress, suits, fancy net waist veils and hats which are just the thing for the fourth of July.

Tam Loo, who has missed a few porkers from his Omaopio hog ranch, has a trespass notice in this issue which should be heeded as he has a gun at home.

The police pulled in eighteen crap shooters from Kahului last Sunday. Each of them forfeited $5.00 bail except one who put up $10, enriching the County by $95.

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd has adjourned all meetings for the Summer recess. The next meeting will be called in September.

Judge Selden B. Kingsbury will deliver the address at the patriotic service to be held at the Wailuku Union Church on Sunday, July 3rd, at half past seven o'clock.

Judge Kingsbury adjourned the balance of the June term of his court from Lahaina to Wailuku where the business of the term was completed and final adjournment of the term made.

C. D. Lufkin, Cashier, has resumed management of the First National Bank of Wailuku.

R. C. Searle Jr. of Honolulu, Lahaina has been appointed Time-keeper to serve at the Kahului Race Track in conjunction with John Vasconcellos and Dr. J. H. Farrel, previously appointed.

Ten autos and fourteen carriages managed to find standing room on the little plot of ground besides the warehouse at McGregor's landing while waiting for passengers from the Mauna Kea Tuesday evening last.

At the church of the Good Shepherd on Sunday next services will be as follows: Sunday School at 10 a. m., and the Holy Communion with sermon at 11 o'clock. The evening service will be held at Punne Hall at 7:45.

DON'T FORGET THAT THE RACES COMMENCE at 9 a. m. on next Monday, and not any later than that. Secure your tickets early and avoid the jam or rush on Monday. Tickets are on sale at the Maui Dry Goods Co's store and at Punne Store Kahului.

The report of the proposed establishment of a Japanese bank in Lahaina is without foundation. Bank failures are nothing new to Japanese and they are hard headed enough to prefer the safe old establishments to the uncertainties of unknown ones.

Cashier C. D. Lufkin has returned and has resumed management of the Lahaina National Bank.

John O'Rourke of Hilo arrived Friday night last week. He has his four horses entered in eight different races. He pronounced Spreckels park race course to be the best grounds he had ever seen in the Islands, which is quite a compliment from the rainy city to the windy city.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Wailuku Union Church held at the Library of the parsonage last week it was voted to purchase the new Pilgrim Hymnal for the use of the church and congregation. The new Hymnal will be here in three or four weeks, it is expected.

A petition signed by over seventy people was presented to the liquor license commissioners asking that the interdiction against the sale of liquor in Wailuku July fourth be rescinded. The board declined to reconsider its action, and Wailuku will celebrate the fourth without booze.

A linen shower was given in honor of Miss Jennie Hansen at the home of Mrs. George Wilbur on Thursday afternoon. It was a complete surprise to the young lady. About twenty of the Wailuku ladies were present. She received many beautiful and useful articles in linen, after which delicious refreshments were served.

The Normal school graduates for this year are, Annie Amama, Maude de Bratville, Helen Cathcart, Pannai Cummings, Grace Chang, Elizabeth Chang, Virginia Carvalho, Elizabeth Desha, Emma Goo, Mary Grote, Elizabeth Heen, Bertha Kau, David Kalaau, Annabelle Low, Edwin Lindsay, Tokie Miamoto, Annie Napier, Hedwig Oremba, John Pavao, Henrietta Smith, Angeline Silva, Paul Tulett, Michi Tanaka, Helga Wikander, Amy Wong, Eleanor Wilcox, Ruth Jane.

St. Anthony school commencement exercises were had last Monday and all the numbers of the well rendered program were enjoyed by the visitors. A duet by Anson Robinson and Archie Bat was especially fine, and the instrumental music as well as the singing were appreciated by all. The people of Wailuku take pride in the excellent educational work of this school, and have faith in Brother Frank the principal and his able assistants.

Catholic Ladies

Entertainment.

The Town Hall was crowded to overflowing Saturday evening last with people who turned out to the Cantata by the pupils of the St. Anthony Girls' School.

The young ladies were well drilled in their parts and everything went off as smoothly as any well drilled company of players could have wished. The tableaux set to the red lights were attractive and pretty, the singing was pleasant to hear and the acting brought down the house at times. A solo by Miss Carolyn Scholtz was much appreciated.

After completion of the literary program the floor was cleared and, with the Laniuna Club furnishing music, dancing was indulged in by lovers of the Terpsichorean art until near midnight.

Many who were unable to get even standing room only, commented on the size of the town hall, one wanted it just a bit wider, another thought by building it a little longer the crowd could find room, and another who found it insufferably hot inside suggested how much cooler it would be to carry the walls a few feet higher, all of which will be an improvement to the town hall.

Reserved seat-tickets for the show to be given by Henry Vieira and his bunch of fun makers at the K. of P. Hall this evening, are on sale at the Maui Dry Goods & Grocery Co. Ltd. Store. Those desiring tickets should make reservations before it is too late. The show will be a good one, and a treat is in store for those wishing to hear some good Chinese and Dutch English.
